ABOUT THE WINE

This unique and stunning bottle of rosé makes its way to us as a collaboration from importer Fifi of New York and Domaine Leonine of Southern France. It's named in honor of Fifi's daughter, as he calls her "Babushka", and it's an incredibly complex and beautiful expression of Syrah rosé. As you already know we don't restrain pink wines to one season or temperature, so even as the weather is getting chill(i)er we're still looking out for you and your glass. This rosé is great year-round no doubt, but we're especially loving it right now!

Tart red fruits with a pleasant citrus essence and solid rocky mineral finish.
