

1215 Wine Bar & Coffee Lab

Les Cortis, "Naxide"2021

Varietal:

Chardonnay, Altesse

Region:

Bugey, France

Farming:

Practicing Organic & Biodynamic

Soil Type:

Limestone and Marl

Fermentation:

Used Oak Barrels, SS

Dry/Sweet:

Dry

Body:

4/5

Acid:

3/5

Tannin:

0/5

ABOUT THE WINE

We are so excited to have Les Cortis wines in our market! The winery is super new, with their first vintage in 2016, but winemaker Jeremy Decoster's fame in the natural wine world has led to so much buzz around his project with partner Isabel Coiffier, and honestly the wines speak for themselves. We also don't get our hands on much Alpine wine, so this is a true treat. This blend of Chardonnay and Altesse is our most recent obsession and is absolutely perfect for the wintry nights of which we're in the thick. Generous and round on the palate with rich flavors, yet maintaining that perfect amount of acidity to keep you coming back to the glass is where this wine shines. We'd be remiss in not recommending drinking this with a spread of alpine cheeses, meats, and pickled items. You will not regret it!

Rich and round apple, lemon, with an alpine rocky and herbal quality.

